

ANNIVERSARY TAKES THE CAKE - Pioneer Circle President Lillian Palinka opened the 20th Anniversary Celebrations of the Society with the cutting of a massive anniversary cake.

Pioneer Circle marks two progressive decades

Elk Point Pioneer Circle marked the end of two successful decades Friday night with an anniversary dinner and celebration in their handsome Seniors Recreation Centre which drew a large crowd of present and former members, families and friends.

The group has come a long way since its founding on April 3, 1973, when 22 members gathered to elect Bill Bartling as President, Lawrence Garneau as Vice President and Anne Kates as Secretary - Treasurer of the fledgling seniors organization. The name, "Pioneer Circle," was suggested by Florence Lindquist two months later and was adopted by the group, at about the same time the seniors found a home for their new organization in the hall they then shared with the Lions Club and Legion.

In her history of the group, Hazel Hannah noted that the Pioneer Circle was not the first seniors group in Elk Point. Earl Bullis was instrumental in the 1953 founding of an Old Timers Association, for which one had to be a resident of the area for forty years or more to qualify for membership.

In 1967, the Christian Education Committee of the United Church decided to hold a supper honoring the community's seniors in the United Church Hall. This event was such a success that it developed into seniors parties for special occasions through the next few years. Five years later, PSS Director Charles McLaughlin suggested that a seniors group should be formed, and a group of seniors from Elk Point toured seniors clubs in St. Paul and Two Hills, becoming quite enthused in the process and agreeing that Elk Point needed something similar. This led to the founding of the present society.

The hall they shared with the Legion and Lions was quite small to begin with, with kitchen and washrooms in the basement. With donations from New Horizons, PSS, private individuals and businesses, volunteers added a much needed addition to the facility and moved kitchen and washrooms upstairs. Raffles, ham and turkey bingos and other activities helped pay the operating expenses through the years.

More recently, the Pioneer Circle started floor curling and now have 10 to 12 rinks competing weekly and in spiels. Carpet bowling and dances are other popular activities. The group is active in the community and many other groups have benefitted from their donations.

During the late 1980s, need for a larger facility for the growing society became evident. A very successful drive brought the membership to over the 200 mark, while a canvass for donations and a memorial fund brought in a substantial amount of money. A building erected by pharmacist Doug McPherson for a funeral chapel became available when original plans went awry, and McPherson made the building available to the society at a very reasonable cost which was met with funding from all possible sources including several government grants. Now the seniors have a facility which is the envy of similar groups over a wide area.

"We worked hard, but it was worth it. I'm proud to have been a part of it all," Mrs. Hannah concluded.

Langevin wins

The new provincial constituency of St. Paul - LacLaBiche will be represented by one of Alberta's 32 Liberal MLAs. Paul Langevin is taking the big step from municipal politics, as mayor of St. Paul, to the provincial legislature after collecting 51 percent of the votes in yesterday's election.

Langevin had 5038 of the 9934 votes cast in the constituency, 1140 ahead of Progressive Conservative candidate John Trefanenko with 3898. New Democrat Eugene Houle received 998 votes.

For Langevin, the victory is somewhat bittersweet. Despite his decisive victory, he will be sitting as an opposition member in the legislature. "It's sad to see the Liberal party in opposition," he said of the return of the PCs to power in the province. "Voters have a God-given right to suffer some more if they choose to, but we'll be there to keep the government in line and to apply a lot of pressure. It won't be as free as in the past."

Langevin led in 36 of 55 polls, with Trefanenko topping 13 and Houle 6.

Steve West returned

A jubilant Steve West was given a standing ovation by a large crowd who packed the Vermilion Golf Club for his post-election victory celebration last night. After running a gauntlet of hugs and handshakes, the Progressive Conservative incumbent went to the poll list tacked on the clubroom wall and marked in the total unofficial votes: 5382 for himself, 4191 for Liberal Greg Michaud and 824 for New Democrat Grant Bergman.

West said he was "very pleased with the results. Provincially, it's a tremendous success. We look forward to carrying out the budget and the deficit elimination as we go forward."

ST. PAUL AND DISTRICT RESERVE GRAND CHAMPION - Tim Havener of the Elk Point 4-H Beef Club was congratulated by Andrew Boddy of E-Can Oilfield Services (right) on his win of the Reserve Grand Championship at the St. Paul and District Steer Show and Sale, June 7 in St. Paul. Boddy bought the 1180 pound Simmental steer for $1.42 per pound. Proud dad Chris Havener holds the Reserve Champion Banner donated by Norcen Energy Resources, Elk Point. The Grand Champion of the inter-club show was shown by Denis Kotowich of St. Paul 4-H MultiClub and sold to DLC Meat Packers in Bonnyville for $1.60 per pound.

Current Pioneer Circle Society President Lillian Palinka agreed that the organization of the society had taken determination, and to keep it going had required two decades of diligent work, but there had been fun and frolic along the way. Today's fine building is "a remarkable accomplishment," regarding which all members are proud and happy. Thanks were expressed to all members, past and present, for their part in the creation of a successful society.

Master of Ceremonies Sid Holthe noted that MLA John Drobot and Mrs. Drobot had been especially supportive of the seniors. In honor of Drobot's poetic abilities, Holthe had himself written a poem, "Ode To The Hasty Departure By MLA Drobot From His Horse," a comic story enjoyed by all. Drobot, in his final official function as MLA, brought greetings from the Honorable Ken Kowalkski and presented a plaque honoring the occasion.

"It's a real accomplishment - twenty years of working together is something so many organizations wish they could achieve," Drobot said. He then recited some very apt poems, complete with sound effects.

Mayor Ed Buck was unable to be present, but sent Administrator Curt Svendsen on his behalf to present a congratulatory plaque and message.

Community Services Director Terri Ehlert also brought congratulations on the Society's 20th Anniversary, and said "it's something the whole town should be proud of." She noted that the theme for Seniors Week '93 is "Seniors - a Strength of Alberta," and since the senior population of the province numbers more than 230,000, she feels "that's a lot of strength." She complimented the Pioneer Circle on their fine facility, and said that the seniors are "a pleasure to work with. You can always depend on them to get things done."

Pastor Jim MacLellan spoke on "The characteristics of a circle," noting a circle "helps us to focus," which all enduring organizations must do. A circle is "a series of dots equally spaced from a fixed point in the middle," and the society is made up of people distributed equally and bound by a common purpose. There is "no beginning and no end," to a circle, which has an enduring, eternal quality. "and I have an absolute conviction that you are all created as eternal beings."

A number of entertainers helped to make the evening a success. Gaby Bayduza entertained with three piano numbers, "It Is No Secret," "Oh, How We Danced" and "Golden Slippers." Melanie Malachowski and a group of the tiniest Ukrainian Dancers performed a charming number. John Bennett provided a number of piano tunes, while Cynthia Adkins sang two powerful solos, "Love In Any Language" and "Love Will Be Our Home."

Three lovely hanging baskets of plants decorated the stage and then became door prizes, with Lena Cap, Frank Johns and Grace Harrison the lucky winners.

The evening concluded with the presentation of scrolls for all present and former members in appreciation of their efforts over the past twenty years. As Holthe said, this recognition was well deserved. "You helped to make it happen," he told his fellow members.

MLA PRESENTS PLAQUE - In the final official function of his nearly eleven years as MLA, John Drobot presents Pioneer Circle President Lillian Palinka with a plaque honoring the group's 20 years.

Elk Point Community Services' Summer Play Programs will be starting on July 6, 1993 and running to August 17, 1993. There will be two programs, "Sun Spots," which will be for four, five and six year old children, and "Fun In The Sun" which will be for children between the ages of seven and twelve years. Sun Spots will run Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9:00 to 11:30 and Fun In The Sun will run every weekday afternoon from 1:00 to 3:30.

These programs will also include field trips and special activities. There will be a light nutritional snack provided for the children each day as well.

Our Summer Play Programs are shortened again this year due to a reduction of grant assistance from the federal and provincial governments. As a result, we need and encourage any assistance which parents and the public can provide. Parent involvement will ensure that we will be able to continue to provide the best possible programs at an affordable cost. Registration forms are available at the Community Services Centre Office. The fees for these programs are $40 per child enrolled in Fun In The Sun, $25 per child enrolled in Sun Spots.

There will be an additional $40 fee for parents who do not participate in the volunteer component of the program. Registration numbers will be restricted to 15 children in each program. What price safety??

Dear Editor:

What price safety? Apparently $200. We were amazed recently when we received a letter from the Superintendent of Schools advising us that it is now considered unsafe for the school bus to enter and exit our driveway when picking up our daughter. We were further amazed to learn that it would no longer be considered unsafe if we paid $200 - up front.

Excuse me, but am I the only one who thinks this sounds a little bit like extortion? If the Board of Education wants to start charging a fee to parents of children who use the bus service, why don't they just charge us a fee, instead of making unverified references to the "danger factor to riders on the bus"?

In our case, where the bus would park on the highway beside our driveway, there is a hill and a curve to the west and a hill to the east. But we are sure this will be considered a fine and safe place to park a bus - if we don't hand over the $200.

Sincerely,
S.D.Pelech

From the Forts

By Louise Crane

A year has come and gone since I first arrived in Elk Point. On June 3rd, 1992, I arrived in the heavy rain (remember that stuff?) and began a new career and life in Elk Point. It has been a wonderful year. I can still remember arriving to meet many people and feeling that it would take me forever to get to know them. This year I can say that many have become good friends and supporters of Fort George - Buckingham House.

On June 17, 7:00 p.m. at the Elk Point Library, we are having a guest speaker and slide show about Fort George. I would also encourage the public to attend as we will have new development proposals for the site at hand.

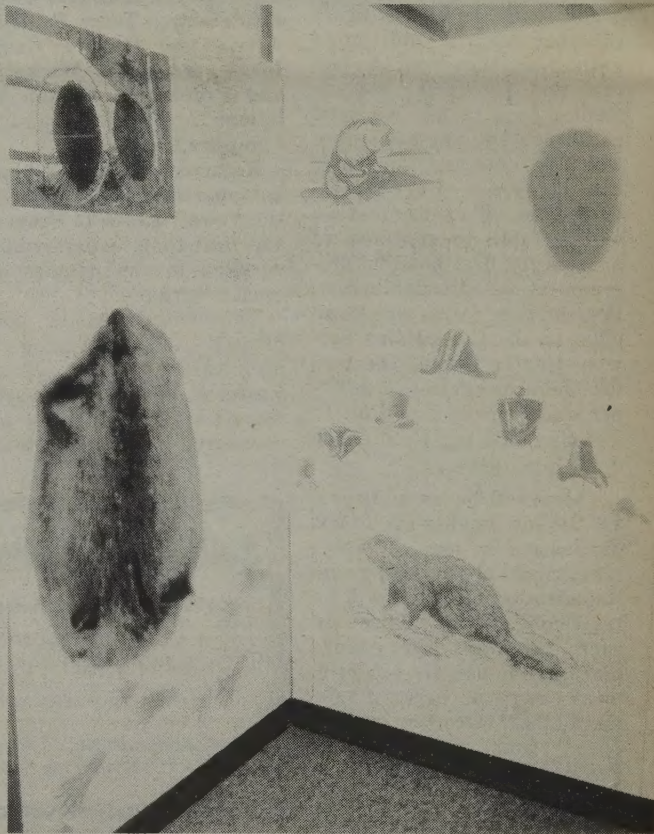

The major complaint I have received was that the town had little input in the design and development of the site. I was not here and I don't want to rehash what was then. THIS IS NOW... Please come and see what is being proposed. This is a chance to express your opinions and get information from us. I really think that in order to complain, one must come to the site first. Last year's visitor stats showed that only 3 percent of our visitors were from Elk Point. Many people I have talked to have yet to visit us.

What can we do to get use of this wonderful facility? What do the people from Elk Point want to see done with this site? I need to be able to give my bosses at Historic Sites some concrete evaluation. Our number of visitors is up from last year. Visitors from other counties and countries are coming. What changes in programming would you like to see? Please attend the slide show (that will be about 45 minutes long), have a coffee and give us your opinions. I am looking forward to seeing you there.

Next Event... 1st Anniversary celebrations. We are having an ecumenical service at Buckingham House at 2 p.m., Sunday, June 27. Everyone is welcome.

Summer Break At The Forts... Children's day camp every Tuesday and Thursday throughout July and August. For more information, call 724-2611.

BASIS OF THE FUR TRADE - The beaver was the reason behind the fur trade in western Canada two centuries ago, which inspired the Hudson's Bay and North West Companies to build forts such as Buckingham House and Fort George. This brief history of the use of the beaver in making hats stylish 200 years ago is part of the "Trapline - Lifeline" display at the Interpretive Centre this summer.

Curtains open on new showroom

The small store across 50th Avenue from the Post Office, formerly the home, at various times, of a meat market, two newspapers, a gift shop, an accounting firm and a body toning salon, has taken on a fresh new look as the downtown showroom for a long-standing and thriving local business, Custom Curtains By Carole.

Carole Rae is well known in both Elk Point and St. Paul for her talent in creating beautiful and imaginative window coverings to suit every decor. She has been producing these fine products out of her basement workroom for a number of years, and at one time, had a store in St. Paul. Recently, however, the volume of business determined a need for a showroom in which samples of fabric, styles of window coverings, bed coverings and other lines, such as a variety of blinds, could be displayed to customers.

A variety of window treatments and valances cover the walls in the front section of the new shop, while the back two areas are devoted to samples, bolts and remnants of fabrics, trim, rods and blinds. Mrs. Rae makes a variety of curtains, drapes, valances and bedspreads, plus decorative items such as pillows to give your room that special finishing touch. Styles of blinds range from the old standard roller blinds to venetians to the latest in pleated shades, as well as the very popular vertical blinds. She has added a line of patterns for a wide selection of crafts, and has remnants of many kinds of fabric which would adapt well to becoming cushion covers, quilt patches, doll clothes and other craft and decorative items.

The showroom is open from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday afternoons, with other times by appointment. Make sure you stop in and have a look - it's sure to give you some great new decorating ideas!

T.I.C. Talk

Sherry Pelech
Tourist Information Officer

The business of giving information to tourists here at the Tourist Information Centre (TIC) has been a bit slow this past week. However, this early in June is not the most rife-with-tourists time of the year, so our quotas are comparable to last season.

I was talking to a tourist from south of here, last week. They have had near-drought conditions in her area for the last few years like we have had. We were talking about the buildup of black clouds to the north. She told me that where she comes from, when they see clouds like that, they no longer say, "It looks like rain!" Instead, they stare up at the overcast skies and say, "I wonder where that's going!"

Which is very much what I say when I see camperloads of shiny new tourists going down the highway and they aren't stopping to see me.

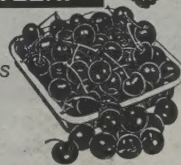

Our tentative new hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesdays and Thursdays, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Fridays, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

Kotowich sweeps district heifer show

Winning two district 4-H championships, plus an armload of other trophies, has made this an unforgettable week for Denis Kotowich of the St. Paul 4-H Multi Club.

He topped off Monday's win of the District Steer Show Grand Championship with a win of the District Supreme Championship Heifer title at Sunday's show in Elk Point, after collecting first place trophies in the Yearling, Cow-Calf and Herd classes, as well as top honors in Senior Grooming, Showmanship and Judging.

Kotowich's yearling heifer earned him the Royal Bank trophy in the Yearling Competition, and combined with his cow-calf pair, who won another Royal Bank trophy, to win the Herd Competition award from VB Insurance, St. Paul. The yearling then went on to become Supreme Champion, winning the Bert Pratch Construction trophy and a banner from R & R Bulk Oil, Glendon.

Second place in the Yearling division went to Kyla Makowecki, and third to Ronald Lafrance, both of St. Paul. Lafrance placed second in the Cow-Calf class, with Carrie Piotrowski of Elk Point third. Lafrance and Miss Piotrowski went on to place second and third, respectively, in the Herd class.

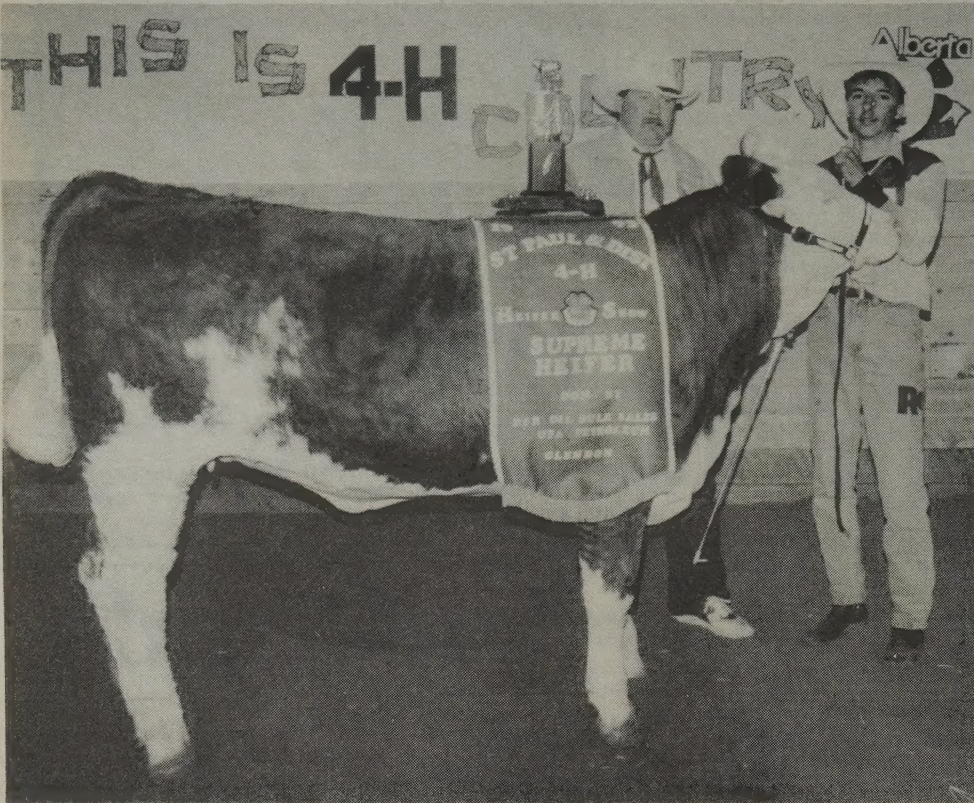

Kyla Makowecki's yearling was named Reserve Champion for the Fontaine "Carel" Farms trophy.

The afternoon began with showmanship and grooming competitions for the sixteen exhibitors from the Goodridge, St. Paul and Elk Point clubs. Jennifer Connor of St. Paul placed first in Junior Grooming for the EDK Accounting trophy, with Robyn Danyluk of Elk Point second and an honorable mention to Tim Havener, also of Elk Point. Denis Kotowich won the Case Power and Equipment trophy in Senior Grooming, followed by Ronald Lafrance and Kyla Makowecki.

Showmanship competition saw Kotowich and Miss Connor again receiving the trophies, the Senior award courtesy of Dairy World Foods, St. Paul and the Junior trophy from St. Paul District 4-H Council. Kelly Peterson of Elk Point was second in the Junior category, with an honorable mention to Robyn Danyluk, while Ronald Lafrance and Kyla Makowecki were second and third in the Seniors.

All heifer project members had an opportunity to try their hands at judging four of the heifers, following a brief description of judging points by Judge Dawn Wilson. Robyn Danyluk won the Junior trophy, sponsored by Sharon and David Boorse, while Denis Kotowich won the Senior award from Lottie Lake Ranch.

DISTRICT SUPREME CHAMPION - Denis Kotowich showed his Simmental yearling heifer to the District Supreme Championship. He accepted the Bert Pratch Construction trophy and R & R Bulk Oil banner from Wes Janz.

DISTRICT RESERVE CHAMPION - Kyla Makowecki accepted the Fontaine "Carel" Farms trophy from Sharon Boorse for her glossy black yearling heifer.

RCMP opens new detachment in St. Paul

Close to 1000 people were on hand Saturday, June 5 for the colorful opening ceremonies of the St. Paul RCMP Detachment's fine new facility at the west end of St. Paul.

With the handsome two storey brick building for a background, Assistant RCMP Commissioner Les Holmes was flanked by dignitaries and Mountie crimson as he snipped the ribbon to declare the $4.5 million complex officially open.

"I'm very proud and thankful to those who had a part in building it," Holmes said. "Without your community support we couldn't have done the job. We're looking forward to serving you for years to come."

The day included prayers and a sweetgrass ceremony by Saddle Lake elders, entertainment by dancers, musicians and the Elk Point Choral Society, followed by tours of the facility.

A stirring benediction: Fowler, Mazankowski, Holmes.

WHAT'S NEWS AT THE LIBRARY?

Ernie the Earthworm made his first public appearance on Tuesday, June 8 at the Elk Point Elementary School, to the kindergarten through to the Grade Sixes. We received a lot of positive interest for the Elk Point Public Library's Summer Reading Program. Ernie and I told the children that as an earthworm, he does his part for the environment

Friends seeking local feedback

The Friends of Fort George - Buckingham House are looking for community input into the next steps to take in the development and enhancement of the site. A meeting at which concerns and ideas may be voiced is being held in the Elk Point Library on Thursday, June 17 at 7 p.m. and everyone is invited. A slide presentation regarding the archaeological digs at the site will also be part of the interesting and informative meeting.

The need for community input was discussed at the June 1 meeting of the Friends. Three members of the group, Jeanne May, Pat Johnson and Erna Holliday, recently attended the Development Committee Meeting to represent the volunteers who are involved with the site and give feedback from the community. They expressed concerns that the site must have local involvement if it is to be a success. A grant for further development is being applied for and would necessitate local fundraising, which some of the Friends feel could be difficult in the present economy. While further development, such as the construction of a replica of Fort George's Big House, would be a substantial enhancement to the site, it may be unrealistic to consider such a project at the present, and it may be preferable to proceed in stages, with local input wherever possible. More modest plans, for the installation of site markings, are expected to go ahead this year.

The community is also invited to get involved by attending the upcoming special events, such as the First Anniversary of the Interpretive Centre on June 27, the Gathering of the Clans and River Challenge Canoe Race on August 1 and 2, and the Fall Rendezvous on September 11, as well as taking in the new display, "Trapline / Lifeline" which will be at the site until August 31 and the Tribute To Archaeologists, with a simulated archaeological dig, which will be at the site from June 15 to July 15.

A fundraising raffle is now underway, with prizes of a Hudson's Bay Blanket, a rug crafted by Kehewin Creations, and a piece of Fish Scale Art.

ELK POINT REVIEW

Phone 724-4087 -- Elk Point

Summer reading program focuses on environment and was asking that all the children do what they could for a cleaner earth. The Library Summer Reading Program is based on a positive environmental outlook for the future and what each individual can do themselves to create a cleaner, healthier world.

As part of the program for the older children, we will be focusing on how to use the library, reading and creative writing. But this doesn't exclude the fun! There will be games, crafts, and a lot of wonderful stories told by everyone. We will be giving prizes to the players on our NVIRO Bingo game and all program members can play. Also, for every book read this summer by the children, they have a chance to "clean" Ernie's world up. We need a lot of readers so that Ernie's home is liveable again.

For the preschool level, we are basing the program on an environmental outlook also, but it will be simplified so that the children will understand that they, too, can make a difference. We will be listening to stories, tapes and songs as well as creating a few of our own. There will be lots of crafts to keep little hands busy all summer long. The younger children will also have a chance to "clean" Ernie's home with every book they read.

In addition to Book To The Future, our Summer Reading Program, we will also be featuring Family Night, which will be a movie shown every Wednesday evening in July and August. In conjunction with the Community Services Fun In The Sun Program we will also be having a Friday Matinee for the months of July and August. For more information you can call Gayle at the Elk Point Public Library, 724-3737. There will be no charge to the Elk Point Public Library members for the Summer Reading Program. We're looking forward to seeing you this summer. Happy reading!

A new book in the library this week is The Scorpio Illusion by well known author

Robert Ludlum. Ludlum is the author of eighteen novels published in thirty two languages and forty countries. This is a high voltage tale of intrigue that hurls the reader forward from the first breathtaking page to the stunning, explosive conclusion. For all you Ludlum fans, this sounds like a good one.

CLASSIFIED DEADLINE FRIDAY NOON

Erica Neilsen

Elk Point Elementary School

On Wednesday, May 5, the Grade 6 classes of the Elk Point Elementary School went on a field trip to the Edmonton Space and Science Centre and the World Waterpark in West Edmonton Mall. This group started making preparations and made their decision to go there way back last fall, when just the thought was what was exciting. Each class chose a "Student Council." These councils had meetings separately, to decide how to raise money. We had three activities. We got sponsors and had a spell-a-thon with 100 words. We had a popcorn sale, plus a spooky Halloween Dance. All that made enough money to pay for our admissions for a class of 21.

The Grade 6 classes left the school at 8:50 a.m. The bus trip was enjoyable even though it was three hours long. Each class sat on a different side of the bus, Grade 6Bs left side, Grade 6As right side. People had a variety of things to do: read, talk, play games and even listen to Walkmans. It was a sunny day so quite a few people wore sunglasses. The bus stopped in Vegreville so everyone could stretch their legs and have a bathroom break. Pretty soon each student ate lunch on the bus before they reached Edmonton Space and Science Centre at about noon.

At the Space and Science Centre, everyone got a chance to look at the amazing souvenirs. After that, everyone went to look at "Dwayne's World," the neat computer games, and even a test about space. In Dwayne's World, there was a kind of merry-go-round thing called the Spinner. When you got off it you were very dizzy. In the Space Place where there were all the games, there was a weigh scale for all of the planets. In the Margaret Zeidler Star Theatre, we saw a show called "Our Changing Universe." There was a big domed screen over top of us. The dome was 14 m. high and 23 m. across. We had tilt back swivel chairs so we could see over top of us and behind us. There was a big mechanical thing called the Zeiss Star Projector, the

Stampede poster contest

The Elk Point Agricultural Society Rodeo Committee would like to extend a special thanks to all those students who participated in this year's poster contest! The art work was exceptional! All the posters will be on display at the Rodeo in the Indoor Show Arend and will be returned to the students after the Rodeo.

Unfortunately, there can be only one first place winner in each category with an Artist

Pack for first prize. These are:

Kindergarten to Grade 1 - d Jason Kalynchuk, Gr. 1

Grades 2 to 3 - Kyle Kurech, 2A

Grades 4 to 6 - Shaylene Slywka, 5B

Runners-up will receive a free admission ticket to the rodeo: Jonathan Buryn, 1C, Robin Schade, 1C, Eva Guskowski, 2A, Kristy Myshaniuk, 2A, Maureen Myshaniuk, 2A, Tori Warawa, 5B, Nathan Matthews, 6, and Brett Kopeck, 5,

Grade six visits Edmonton biggest of its kind in Canada. The show was 45 minutes long, with kinds of things like changes in the earth's surface, orbiting, plus information about the constellations.

Right after that we headed straight for the Devonian (IMAX) Theatre to see "Blue Planet" which was 45 minutes long. It was more exciting than the other one because if the spaceship went right you went with it. It felt like you were right there one the screen. One part you were in a computer simulated spaceship and went for a ride, almost running into sides of mountains.

After our shows, our supervisors had to get us into our groups again to go to the bus. Our supervisors were Mrs. Mikitka, Mrs. Nielsen, Mrs. Birkett, Mr. Youngchief, Mr. Boyd (also bus driver), Mr. Meger and Mr. Sereda. As soon as we were on the bus we headed on over to West Edmonton Mall. The trip seemed only about five minutes long.

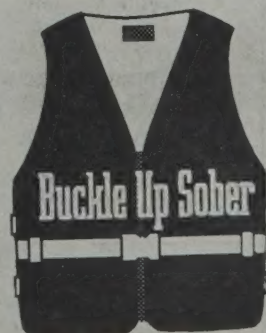

When we got there we headed into the mall and went straight to the ticket line. As soon as we got our bathing suits on we headed into the big wave pool. The waves were fun because you could turn your back on them and they wouldn't push you anywhere. The slides never opened until 4 p.m. but as soon as the waves were done, everyone headed for the waterslides. The fastest one there was the Blue Bullet. If you laid down you would go even faster than sitting up. The others were pretty fast too. The names of some I saw are the Blue Bullet, Corkscrew, Twister, Howler, Nessie's Revenge, Cannon Ball and the Sky Screamer. The Sky Screamer is a screamer because it makes you scream and because it goes straight down then straight across. You just shoot into the water. Some people went on it seven times. The Twister went round and round in circles. The Cannon Ball had a few drop-offs and in one spot, it had water spraying down. The Howler was a bit like the Twister. The Corkscrew went round in circles. Nessie's Revenge had bumps in it. It must have been a revenge with the bumps in it. After that, everyone just had enough time to go back into the wave pool for some more waves and then go and get ready to leave. Everyone got out but were wishing they could have more time. Everyone got ready and went to the souvenir shop to buy a snack or a souvenir.

Then we went with our supervisors to the Fast Food Arcade. Lots of people went to McDonalds and A&W, some people went to Chinese restaurants, Kentucky Fried Chicken and Grandma Lee's. Some people just bought somewhere else and ate with their friends in McDonalds. Some people ate and went to the video arcade after they were finished. One game, you threw a ball at a basket, and if you got it in, you got tickets to get prizes. Everyone ate till about 6:30. Then we left. Some people stopped to get chips, a chocolate bar or cotton candy for a snack on the way home. Some people just brought their leftovers from their supper to eat on the bus.

We drove for about 1 1/2 hours until we stopped in Vegreville for a bathroom break, a snack and something to drink before we got home. On the way home, lots of people talked, but some went to sleep because they were tired from swimming. We arrived back home at the school at about 10:00 p.m. Everyone just sat around until their rides came.

I think our Grade 6 trip was fun and I definitely would go again. The Grade 6 classes should continue this and choose to go there because I think they should have as much fun as we had.

TENNIS NEWS

Danny Maas

Elk Point Tennis Club

Because of the overwhelming amount of letters coming in to Tennis News, I've decided to devote this week's column to answering tennis concerns.

Dear Tennis News,

Every time I hit a backhand shot, the ball either flies far to the left or far to the right of the tennis court. What am I doing wrong?

Signed,
Inconsistent

Dear Inconsistent,

My guess is that the problem lies in your swing. Chances are that you swing the racket around like a baseball bat. While this can bring a lot of power, the accuracy fails. My suggestion is that instead of following through the shot around your side, follow through toward your target, like a golfer. In this way, the racket face stays facing the target, increasing the chances of the ball hitting your target. In other words, steer the ball to your target, and your accuracy will improve.
